

band to seek medical attention in the United States of America. Sadly, he died in the USA due to this ailment. Due to the eruption of the war, Johnette could not return home after this and remained in the United States which became her new home.

While in the USA, she continued her working life. She contributed to humanity by serving as a teacher at a nursery school in Washington DC. Given her love for the Lord, she served as a deaconess in the ~~New Second Baptist~~ Church in Washington DC.

New Second Baptist Church

She leaves to cherish her loving memories, her children; Alice Scott, Mabel Ho-Sharrow (Lewis), Richelieu V. Ho (eo), Philip Z. Ho Jr. (Pamela), Viola E. Ho, Clarissa Ho-Jalloh (Augustine) and

Johnette Ho-Nelson (Brakemi);

17 grandchildren, brothers; William N. Scott, Jr. and Je Scott,

sister; Elitha

Taylor-Nyekan,

brother-in-law;

William S. Ho

Jr., sister-in-law;

Emma Knuckles-Ho and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mama, Mommie, Ma, Lala, Grandma, Teacher, Chuke, Aunt Johnette, "John", Sis Johnette, Cousin Johnette as she was affectionately called will be greatly missed by all who came in contact with her pleasant and caring personality. Her memories will linger in our hearts forever. We say rest in perfect peace. We love you, but God loves you best.